

The Woof!

JULY 2018

Ongoing Visit Opportunities

Barre City Elementary and Middle School, 50 Parkside Terrace, Barre, Vermont 05641

Stephanie Appleton, Teacher, (802) 479-6541, sapplbce@u61.net

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Would like to have weekly visits in which different students from each classroom can have the opportunity to read with the dogs. They would like to start next September when school is back in.

Ethan Allen Residence, 1200 North Avenue, Burlington, Vermont 05408

Cameron Segal, Manager, (843) 408-7114, csegal@livingwellgroup.org

Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular Hours

Ethan Allen Residence is one of three aging residences operated by Living Well Group. They would be delighted to have TDV become a consistent part of their programming.

Greensboro Nursing Home, 47 Maggie Pond Road, Greensboro, Vermont 05841

Reda Westover, Activity Director, (802) 533-7051, activities@gnhvt.org

Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular Hours

Many residents were once pet owners and their pet was part of the family. They have lost the companionship, love and laughter that a pet visit would bring to them.

Huntington Public Libraries, 2156 Main Road, Huntington, Vermont 05462

Stacey Symanowicz, Co-Director, (802) 434-4583, hpl@gmavt.net

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Summer Reading Program during the summer months.

Middlesex Therapeutic Community Residence, 1076 Route 2, Middlesex, Vermont 05633

Michelle Lavalley, Director, (802) 828-5800, michelle.lavalley@vermont.gov

Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular Hours

Middlesex Therapeutic Community Residence is a locked residence for adults with mental illness. They once had visits from therapy dogs and the residents really loved having those visits.

One-Time Visit opportunities are on the next page.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org

The Woof!

JULY 2018

One-Time Events

(Please contact the person associated with the facility event before visiting)

Lund Family Center

Weekends in July

76 Glen Road, Burlington, Vermont 05401

Julia Blanding, Counselor, (585) 698-7915, juliab@lundvt.org

Lund is a residential treatment center that houses parents who struggle with mental illness and substance abuse. De-stress event. Please contact Julia if you are interested in this event.

TDV Visit for Camp Ta-kum-ta

July 25th at 3pm

77 Sunset View Rd, South Hero, VT 05486

Dede LaRow, larowcritterhaven@gmail.com

Everyone interested in this event needs to take a picture of their dog's rabies certificate and email it to Dede by July 18th. The human half of the Team needs to be at least 19 years old. Once you are on the list and we have your rabies certificate, you will be sent a list of visitor guidelines. We hope that lots of Teams can attend this wonderful event!

Global Foundries (State of VT Employees)

First week of August

1000 River Rd, Essex Jct, Vermont 05452

Lorraine Clark, (802) 324-7764, Lorraine.Clark@vermont.gov

De-stress and team building activity. Please contact Lorraine if you are interested in this event.

Queen City Memory Cafe (at Thayer House Garden Commons)

August 18th from 10am – 11:30am

1197 North Avenue, Burlington, Vermont 05408

Janet Nunziata, Steering Committee Member, (802) 999-1698, Janet.Nunziata@med.uvm.edu

The Queen City Memory Cafe serves people living with dementia and their care partners. Please contact Janet if you are interested in this event.

Franklin County Home

August 26th at 6pm

3 Home Health Circle, St. Albans, Vermont 05478

Emily Burns, Social Worker, (802) 393-6756, emily.burns@fchha.org

Remembrance ceremony for loved ones of people who have passed away on their hospice program. Please contact Emily if you are interested in this event.

LGBTQA Center @ University of Vermont

September 6th from 4:30p – 6:30p

461 Main Street, Allen House, Burlington, Vermont 05405

Becky Swem, Education & Outreach Coordinator, (802) 656-4907, rsuem@uvm.edu

Each year, the LGBTQA Center hosts a Welcome Back BBQ. The Welcome Back BBQ is to build community connections and provide resources and resiliency for LGBTQA students. Please contact Becky if you are interested in this event.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org