

The Woof!

MARCH 2017

One-Time Events

(Please contact the person associated with the facility event before visiting)

Winooski Housing Authority Winter of Wellness

March 3rd from 1p – 3p

120 East Spring Street, Winooski, Vermont 05404

Hayley Williams, SASH Coordinator, (802) 655-9320, Hwilliams@Winooskihousing.org

The goal for this event is to goal is to promote health and wellness. Please contact Hayley if you are interested in this event.

Green Mountain Valley School

March 8th from 9a – 10a

271 Moulton Rd, Waitsfield, Vermont 05673

Cathy Plas, Teacher, (802) 745-7868, cathy.plas@gmail.com

GMVS is requesting a visit to cheer up their injured student athletes who sustained season ending injuries. Please contact Cathy if you are interested in this event.

Washington Village School Reading Celebration

March 8th

72 School Lane, Washington, Vermont 05675

Genevra Lavigne, Middle school Teacher, (802) 917-5119, glavigne@onsu.org

WVS is hosting a reading event and would enjoy therapy dogs to attend. Please contact Genevra if you are interested in this event.

Ongoing Visit Opportunities

Brewster Pierce Memorial School, 125 School St, Huntington, Vermont 05462

Katie Bourque-Johnson, Library Media Specialist, katie.bourquejohnson@gmail.com

Ongoing/Weekend/Regular Hours

This is a Pre-K through 4th grade school looking for weekly visits from therapy dogs during the hours of 7:45-2:15, Mon. - Fri. for reading with students and visiting with them.

Early Education Services-Early Head Start, 130 Birge Street, Brattleboro, Vermont 05301

Starr Gutierrez, (802) 254-3742, sgutierrez@wsesu.org

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Head Start has families and children suffering from the unfortunate substance abuse epidemic in Brattleboro, Vermont and/or under high stress environments.

Jarrett House, 1120 Pine Street, Burlington, Vermont 05401

Annalisa MacDonald, Program Coordinator, (802) 488-7785, amacdonald@howardcenter.org

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Jarrett House is a residential, emergency bed placement, serving children ages 5-13 who are experiencing a mental health crisis. They would love for this to be a weekly, one hour session but open to an available therapy dogs.

Johnson State College, 337 College Hill, Johnson, Vermont 05656

Kate McCarthy, Director Wellness Center, (802) 635-1458, kathleen.mccarthy@jsc.edu

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Johnson state college wellness center has a great first floor location and two small rooms that can accommodate visits with students. It is easily accessible to the outdoors and a comfortable environment.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org

The Woof!

MARCH 2017

Spruce Mountain Inn, 155 Towne Avenue, Plainfield, Vermont 05667

Candace Beardsley, Director, (802) 454-8353, cbeardsley@sprucemountaininn.com

Ongoing/Weekend/Regular Hours

Spruce is a residential treatment program for college age young adults who are challenged by anxiety and depression and have not been able to function independently. They are smart, funny and delightful young people that have not been about to manage college and often suffer from social isolation.

Spruce Street Group Home, 41 Spruce St., Burlington, Vermont 05401

Thomas Fowler, Residential Instructor, (802) 660-8413, tfowler@howardcenter.org

Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular Hours

This is a group home for adults with psychiatric disabilities who light up when therapy dogs are able to visit.

The Residence at Quarry Hill, 465 Quarry Hill Road, S. Burlington, Vermont 05403

Catherine Clark, Resident Engagement Director, (802) 652-4114, cclark@residencequarryhill.com

Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular Hours

The Residence at Quarry Hill is a fairly new Assisted Living Community for Assisted, Independent and Memory Care. They would love to start having regular therapy dog visits.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org