

The Woof!

SEPTEMBER 2017

One-Time Events

(Please contact the person associated with the facility event before visiting)

Vermont Dog Festival

September 23rd from 10am-5pm

3380 Berkshire Center Road, Enosburg Falls, Vermont 05450

Therapy Dogs of Vermont will have a booth at this event. If you would like to join us at the booth please email admin@therapydogs.org

Ongoing Visit Opportunities

Collaborative Solutions/Second Spring, 118 Clark Rd., Williamstown, Vermont 05679

Gemmah Stone, Vocational Specialist, (802) 433-0205, GemmahS@cscorp.org

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Mental health facility who'd love to have TDV visits as this location. They currently have volunteers other locations and have been received well.

Roxbury Village School, 1559 Route 12A, Roxbury, Vermont 05669

Helen Borrelli, K/1 Teacher, (908) 268-5042, bodnar.helen@gmail.com

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

RVS would enjoy having TDV visit to read with the students.

The Gary Residence, 149 Main Street, Montpelier, Vermont 05602

Joanne Crowley-Watkins, Office Manager, (802) 223-3881, jcrowley@thegaryresidence.com

Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

This is a small residential care facility for seniors. Several residents deeply miss their own animals and therapy dog visit would bring great joy.

UVM Health Network Porter Medical Center, 115 Porter Drive, Middlebury, Vermont 05753

Karen Herrmann, Director of Volunteer Services, (802) 388-4790, kherrmann@portermedical.org

Ongoing/Weekday/Evening Hours

Porter medical is a 25 inpatient and 10 maternity bed hospital.

Woodside Juvenile Center, Woodside Drive, Colchester, Vermont 05466

Beth Martell, Youth Counselor, (802) 881-4161, martell.beth@gmail.com

Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular Hours

Woodside has had TDV visits in the past and would enjoy more.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org