

The Woof!

JUNE 2018

Ongoing Visit Opportunities

Camp Thorpe, 680 Capen Hill Rd, Goshen, Vermont 05733
Betsy Erwin, Director, (802) 249-2682, Info@campthorpe.org
Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Camp sessions start June 24 at camp Thorpe and they would love to have bi-weekly visits for their campers. Season ends August 17.

Champlain College Academic Support and Coaching Services, 312 Maple Street Coolidge House, Burlington, Vermont 05401
Lauren Bruneau, Director, (802) 865-6422, lbruneau@champlain.edu
Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular or Evening Hours
Champlain College would love to have visits once a month.

Charlotte Central School, 408 Hinesburg Road, Charlotte, Vermont 05445
Vicki Nelson, School counselor, (802) 425-6631, vnelson@cvsdvt.org
Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours
CCS is a K-8 school who would love to welcome weekly therapy dog visits.

Craftsbury Community Care Center, 1784 East Craftsbury Rd, Craftsbury, Vermont 05826
Barbara Flint, Activity Team Leader, (802) 586-2414, bflintccccenter@myfairpoint.net
Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular or Evening Hours

This bright and warm residential facility is home to 24 senior citizens. They love animals and people coming in from the community. Many of them had their own animals. The North Country Animal League has been bringing an animal once a month, and they are discontinuing their visits. They would love to have a therapy dog visit a few times a month.

Greensboro Nursing Home, 47 Maggie Pond Road, Greensboro, Vermont 05841
Reda Westover, Activity Director, Activity Director, activities@gnhvt.org
Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Many of the residents were once responsible pet owners and their pet was part of the family. They have loss that and would enjoy the companionship and love, that a pet visit would bring them.

Howard Center, 300 Flynn Ave., Burlington, Vermont 05401
Elizabeth Goss, Case Manager, (802) 488-6210, egoss@howardcenter.org
Ongoing/Weekday/Regular Hours

Hoping for a therapy dog to make a weekly visit or once in a while visit to a Howard Center adult group home in Burlington.

St. Johnsbury Health and Rehab, 1248 Hospital Drive, St. Johnsbury, Vermont
Lizabeth Rodgers, Recreation Director, (802) 424-4905, lizabeth.rodgers@genesishcc.com
Ongoing/Weekday or Weekend/Regular or Evening Hours

Short term rehabilitation and long term care unit. The residents love pets and always welcome them in.

One-Time Visit opportunities are on the next page.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org

The Woof!

JUNE 2018

One-Time Events

(Please contact the person associated with the facility event before visiting)

Crossett Library Bennington College

May 24 to May 28 from 1:15-2:15

One College Drive, Bennington, Vermont 05201

Oceana Wilson, Dean of the Library, (802) 440-4606, owilson@bennington.edu

Stress relief event. Please contact Oceana if you are interested in this event.

Caws 4 Paws

June 9 from 10am-2pm

Barre Town School, 70 Websterville Road, Barre, VT 05641

Therapy Dogs of Vermont will have a booth at this event. If you would like to join us at the booth please email

admin@therapydogs.org

Saint Johnsbury Pet Parade

June 9 from 10am-2pm

Saint Johnsbury House on Main Street, then will go to Park

Therapy Dogs of Vermont will have a booth at this event. If you would like to join us at the booth please email

admin@therapydogs.org

Mutt Strut

June 10 from 10am- 2pm

Stowe Events Field, Quiet Path-Week Hill Rd, Stowe, VT 05672

Therapy Dogs of Vermont will have a booth at this event. If you would like to join us at the booth please email

admin@therapydogs.org

Camp Takumta Water Carnival

July 25 at 3pm

77 Sunset View Rd, South Hero, VT 05486

Dede LaRow, larowcritterhaven@gmail.com

Please contact Dede if you are interested in this event.

For more information contact Elizabeth Burkey, Facilities Coordinator
Facilities@therapydogs.org

www.therapydogs.org